Philippians 3: 17-21

Sermon from Bryan Payne: Imitating Christ

Brian said early on that “who you imitate in this world has eternal significance”. With that in mind:

1. What kind of a person in the Church should I look for to imitate? (remember to consider the context of Philippians 3: 1-21)
2. What does me imitating others in the church (and visa versa) look like
3. Paul said in 1 Cor. 11:1, “Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ”. If a person presents him or herself as an imitator of Christ, how would we know if that was really true or not?
