

Worldly principles were abolished by godly wisdom (1 Cor. 1:18-22).

What worldly philosophies do you find prominent in our culture today?

What would your spouse/kids/best friend say is most important to you?

Why is Christ's work on the cross specifically important to you?

How does rationalization of worldly philosophies against biblical wisdom damage your soul?

How do you make sure to keep biblical wisdom at the forefront of your thinking?

How has the world's philosophies regarding happiness, sexuality, finances, suffering and time kept you from fully surrendering your life to the Lord?

Worldly power was abolished by godly meekness (1 Cor. 1:23-27a).

How has worldly power affected us and those around us?

How have you seen power and control in your life cause damage to relationships with others and harden your own heart?

How do you know the difference between worldly power and biblical influence?

What decisions do you need to make this week that will demonstrate godly meekness toward others?

1. How will you serve others?
2. How can you help your Small Group increase transparency?
3. How can you demonstrate courage when leading others toward Uncommon Community?

Worldly prominence was abolished by godly commoners (1 Cor. 1:27b-31).

How has worldly position or status influenced you?

Have you found yourself thinking more about promotions or desiring to serve others? Why?

When you think about serving others from a commoner's perspective, how would you accomplish that?

Is there a way you could serve that would not draw attention to yourself?

List 3 words you would associate with biblical meekness and why? Now make a commitment with your small group; give one application for which you will ask them to hold you accountable to for the next 30 days.