

1. Other than God, who loves you most? How do you know? How has their love changed you? What kind of person would you be without their love?
2. Have you wrestled with knowing God loves you? Have you done things that you think would prevent God from loving you? What are they?
3. Do you ever feel accused by Satan? What accusations does he make?
4. List the pressure you are feeling in the following biblical categories
 - Tribulation – lots of problems pressed together
 - Distress – no good options available, can't see a way out
 - Persecution – The price you pay for stand for Christ.
 - Famine or nakedness – extreme poverty.
 - Danger or sword – physical harm, abuse, war, violence.
5. Read Isa 54:17. How does this promise change your perspective on the pressures you feel?
6. Rom. 8:36 is a statement you would make when you are controlled by your feelings. Are you more prone to talk like this?
7. Rom. 8:37 is a statement you would make when you are controlled by your faith. Are you more prone to talk like this?
8. Do you have absolute security in your salvation? What can separate you from the love of Christ?
9. How does v.38-39 change your perspective on what is coming in the New Year?