

1. Are you sure your faith will provide an entrance to God's eternal kingdom? Read the following scripture about who will make it to Heaven. Will you make it?
  - Hebrews 6:11-12
  - John 6:44, 47
  - Matt. 7:18-23
  - 1John 2:3-6, 19

2. 2Peter 1:5 says we are to expend effort to supplement our faith. What can you point to in your weekly schedule that shows you are intentionally supplementing your faith with the qualities listed in 2Peter 1:5-7?

3. Discuss the following qualities. Which ones are most evident in your life? How did they get there? Which ones are most lacking?
  - Virtue – Internal moral character that fuels right choices and empowers uncompromising integrity.
  - Knowledge – Divine truth that informs us about God and His ways.
  - Self-Control – Bringing my appetites under the influence of God's Spirit for ultimate freedom.
  - Godliness – Bringing God to the forefront in every area of my life.
  - Steadfastness – Joyfully choosing to remain under the pressure God allows until he is finished with the test.
  - Brotherly Affection – Pursuing and protecting my relationships with compassion, encouragement, and forgiveness.
  - Love – Spending myself for the benefit of others.

What will you do in the coming year to add these to your life?
