

1. READ Eph. 6:10-20. What kind of feelings does this passage generate in your heart? Why those feelings, do you think?
2. What is the hardest battle you've had to fight, spiritual or other?
3. Do you feel you were victorious? Why or why not?
4. What spiritual battles are you fighting right now?
5. How does knowing the schemes of the enemy (getting us to doubt God) help you fight your current battle?
6. How can you fight in Christ's strength?
7. What are the basic truths of the gospel?
8. As you think back through the battle, how do those truths give you strength?
9. How can you better focus on Jesus as you fight this week?
