

1. List all the advantages our church had by worshipping in a rented elementary school gym? What will we gain by moving into a home of our own?
2. Read Eph. 3:20-21. What is the one thing that must be in the church in order for it to survive and thrive?
3. Is it hard to tell when it is missing? What is church like when it is missing?
4. What does church substitute for it?
5. After God's people sinned, God was willing to give them his promise, his provision, and his protection but not his presence. Are you content to live with those things even if God withholds His presence?
6. How do you intentionally give God glory?
7. Where have you seen a glimpse of God's glory this week?
8. Moses was not ashamed asking for a face-to-face meeting with God to plead for God's presence. Is this something you do regularly? If not, should you be surprised that you do not sense God's presence?
9. What is it that should make your life and your church distinct? Are you distinguished by the glory of God? Is your church distinguished by the glory of God?
