

What is the greatest news you have ever received (other than the the gospel)?

God - The Greatest Being

What arguments do people use to deny the existence of God?

How do you know God exists?

What has God done to reveal himself to mankind? How do we know anything about the nature of God?

Does God seem personal or impersonal to you?

So loved - The Greatest Motive

Is God obligated to love? What would motivate God to love the world?

Have you ever felt unloved? Why?

How do you know God loves you?

The world - The Greatest Mess

What is wrong with the world? How much of what's wrong with the world is your fault?

If you were the only one in the world would it be any more lovable to God?

Do you love the world the way God loves the world? Should you?

He gave - The Greatest Act

Why was just loving the world not enough to save the world?

Do you ever think God asks you to give too much? How does this verse expel that notion?

His only Son - The Greatest Sacrifice

Have you ever had to watch your son suffer? How did you react?

What did it cost God to save you?

Whoever - The Greatest Opportunity

Who do you know that needs Jesus? Have you told them about the opportunity to believe?

Believes - The Greatest Response

How do these words explain gospel belief: trust, rely, depend?

Describe what unbelief looks like in the life of a person who has heard the gospel.

In Him - The Greatest Savior

We all tend to trust in inferior, functional saviors. List as many as you can.

Should not perish - The Greatest Escape

Describe hell.

But - The Greatest Conjunction

Can you give a testimony that includes the phrase “but God”?

Have - The Greatest Assurance

Do you have absolute, 100% assurance that you have been born again?

Have you thought it was arrogant to have such confidence? Why is assurance the opposite of arrogance?

Eternal life - The Greatest Gift

The gift of eternal life begins at the moment it is received and never ends. God eternally secures what he gives.

Do you know that you know that you have it?
