

MAY 9, 2021 // SERMON SUPPLEMENT

FAN THE FLAME SERIES

Lovers of Self vs. Lovers of God

Lovers of self love money	Lovers of God give away what they could spend on themselves
Lovers of self are proud	Lovers of God never lose sight of their deep spiritual need
Lovers of self are arrogant	Lovers of God have a sense of their unworthiness to be loved and used by God
Lovers of self are abusive	Lovers of self create safe environments filled with kindness and grace
Lovers of self are disobedient to their parents	Lovers of God embrace the direction and protection of God-given authority
Lovers of self are ungrateful	Lovers of God are thankful that they have been given more than they deserve
Lovers of self are unholy	Lovers of God carefully evaluate every thought, word, and deed in light of living in the presence of a holy God
Lovers of self are heartless	Lovers of God bleed with compassion for the vulnerable
Lovers of self are unappeasable	Lovers of God are teachable
Lovers of self are slanderous	Lovers of God use words to honor, defend, and gently correct others
Lovers of self lack self-control	Lovers of God value discipline because they recognize the addictive power of sin
Lovers of self are brutal	Lovers of God sacrificially lay down their lives to love others
Lovers of self hate what is good	Lovers of God love when good things happen to others
Lovers of self are treacherous	Lovers of God are loyal when family and friends disappoint them
Lovers of self are reckless	Lovers of God embrace responsibility
Lovers of self are swollen with conceit	Lovers of God are humbled by how much they have to learn
Lovers of self are lovers of pleasure	Lovers of God worship the Giver of all good pleasures

